

Charleston Daily Courier.

No. 19,130.....CHARLESTON, S. C. (CONFEDERATE STATES OF AMERICA) TUESDAY MORNING, APRIL 8, 1862.....Vol. LX.

Antique Bottle & War Relic Show & Sale

SEE & BUY AT THE SHOW

bottles, buttons, swords, dog tags, pottery, coins & bills, pins, books, china, paper items insulators, jars, art work, jewels, coins, pottery, tabletop collectibles, stamps, civil war, military relics, postcards photographs, license plates, insulators, medicine bottles, dishes, stoneware, china, mason jars, soda bottles, milk jars, jugs, ink bottles, comic books, silverware, flasks, marbles, lithographs, fruit jars, and much more!

LOCAL AGENCY BENEFITS

Moncks Corner, SC — All proceeds of this Show and Sale directly benefit the men, women and children served by Berkeley Citizens, Inc., a 501 (c) 3 non-profit agency providing services and supports to people with mental retardation, autism and related developmental disabilities in Berkeley County, South Carolina since 1980.

General Admission $2

Children Under 10, Free with Adult.
Snacks & Home Cooked Food Available Friday & Saturday.

Free Bottle Appraisals

ATTENTION VENDORS

Call Libby: 843-761-0300 or visit www.berkeleycitizens.org for more information or send an email to bottles2009@bciservices.org for a Show Contract and other important facts.

Friday, October 16, 12 Noon-6pm

Saturday, October 17, 9am-1pm

NO RAINCHECKS!
Heated & Cooled Building
Handicapped Accessible,
Ample Free Parking—Show Will Go On, Rain or Shine.

132 Citizens Lane Moncks Corner SC